Japan Report

During this period, the Council published seven issues of Japan Report which deals with hard business decisions of American companies operating in Japan and Japanese companies operating in America, in alternating issues. There are also occasional supplements for what Japanese and/or American companies are planning or doing in Communist countries and in the Middle East. This is written in Washington from original Japanese sources -- newspapers, trade journals, etc. (Nos. 109 - 115)

2. Publications

United States-Japan Economic Relationship in the 1980s. A Seminar cosponsored by Fortune Magazine and the United States-Japan Trade Council. The publication is an edited version of the substantive comments made at the seminar, 3,500 copies printed and distributed.

Yearbook of U.S.-Japan Economic Relations: 1979. Dr. Edward Lincoln and the entire staff spent time throughout the period finalizing the outline for individual submissions.
